Dear Parents, Carers, Families & Friends,

We had some great trips here at Haseltine last week – including the Year 4s going on a river cruise and the Year 5s visiting The Royal Courts of Justice. The children were really enthusiastic about what they had learned. All of the children were amazing on all of the trips. Miss Booker was especially impressed with her children and several members of the public also commented on how brilliant the children were - one lady mentioned 3 children in particular: Deighton, Al-Ameen and Ugonna. Well done to all our children but especially to you 3, I'm so proud of you.

I haven't been here this week – I have been visiting another Outstanding Primary School in NW London (to take part in a Challenge Partner Review – we have one here in March). I missed you all but I have learned a lot to bring back to Haseltine. I hope you have all had a good week,

Best wishes,

Sara Anderman

Worried about your child's night-time bedwetting?

Our school nurse Louise Trevatt will be running an enuresis workshop in the Hub on the morning of 11th December for parents and carers who need support to help their child stop night-time bedwetting.

HELP!

Please could you donate any old jumpers, hats, scarves, gloves, coats, blankets and umbrellas to give out to the homeless this winter. Also tins of soup and hot chocolate. Please bring your donations to the Haseltine Hub by Friday 11th December and Adem's (2JB) mum will collect them.

Many thanks

Don't forget that it is our Christmas Fair on Tuesday 1st December straight after school. Please can you pick your children up from their classes that day, as there will be stalls in the playground.

A couple of children have lost their coats - Johnny in 5D and Alexander in 3S. Please could you check your child's coat at home to make sure that you have the right one? Both coats are named. Please return them to school if you find them.

Many thanks.
